

Laura Bonney – Weekly Prayer Updates

February 29, 2012

REJOICE – We enjoyed a wonderful “last” visit to Baguio—excellent cool weather, Sharon was like a child as she experienced the differences of a cooler temperature and got to see quite a bit of Baguio, safe travel, time to visit friends and favorite places, etc. The seminar was small but good, plus Laura did an additional 2-hour Evangelizing Children (using the Cross Talk tract) and we (with Ernie) shared in a Christian School chapel period. THANK YOU for praying!

PRAY – Saturday Ruth will hold another Cookie Bake for neighborhood children who memorize 7 verses—so far only 3 have accomplished that. Pray for opportunity to interact on a deeper spiritual level. Monday-Wednesday, March 5-7, Laura will be involved in a Recollection (spiritual emphasis for graduating high school students) at a high school in Novaliches. Pray for good coordination with other groups involved, and for follow up. And pray that God’s Word will fall on good ground and bear fruit among these students.

For additional prayer requests, a story of Bible Studies starting as a result of teaching values in schools, and some pictures from the past week, check our personal WebSite: www.bonneyandhaynes.homestead.com.

Thanking God for your partnership in prayer,

Ruth (& for Laura)
