Please Note: for the security and safety of all involved, parents are encouraged to remain in the church facility during lessons.

Late Registration

Since acceptance into a program is on a first-come-first-served basis, late registration will require the approval of the Academy administrator in consultation with the teacher involved.

Missed lessons

It is expected that all students will be committed to regular attendance, and the following are the only exceptions to that:

- cancelled lessons by the teacher (to be made up by the teacher)
- cancellation for prolonged illness (doctor's certificate required)
- cancelled lessons falling on statutory holidays (to be re-scheduled)
- lessons cancelled due to unexpected circumstances and for good reason within 24 hours of notification to the office or the teacher (please be sure to obtain the teacher phone number for notification)

If missed lessons for the above reasons are not made up during the year, they will be done the last two weeks of the Academic year, with the approval of the instructor. Note: only two excused absences Term 1 and three Term 2 will be made up except in exceptional circumstances. No refund will be given for lessons not made up after this number is exceeded.

Absences with no notification will be only made up at the teacher's discretion, and will not be refunded. After two lessons with no notification, there will be the option of withdrawing, with written notice, from the course.

Note: Please contact the teacher directly to cancel a lesson, since there will not always be someone in the church office.

Course Withdrawal and Refund

Discontinuing lesson attendance will not constitute withdrawal from the program. Written notice of withdrawal from West Highland Academy of Music must be submitted to the school through the West Highland Church Office in order to apply for a refund of tuition.

- 1) The date the letter is received will be the date of official notice of withdrawal from the program.
- 2) If pre-paid, refunds for remaining lessons will be issued within two weeks of the notice.
- 3) If paying by pre-authorized credit card monthly or by the term, written notice of withdrawal from the course must be received before the 25th of the month in order to suspend payment for the following month.

Conservatory Options

Students will have the option of preparing for Conservatory exams, with the approval of the teacher. Each student will be responsible for the exam application and payment. For vocal exams, the student will be responsible for supplying an accompanist.

Instrumental Programs

Students will supply their own instruments, and be responsible for their maintenance and repair. It is expected that piano students will have a keyboard at home on which to practice.

Recitals

Students will be expected to take part in the recital scheduled at the end of each term. Fall term: November or December ; Winter/Spring term: first week of June

In addition, because it is important to apply the learning that has taken place, it is expected that students will find an outlet to pursue this application on a regular basis. They will be encouraged to play in the orchestra or sing in the choir in their church or community, as well as perform with any worship teams that are available.
